- 47 If a general meeting is adjourned for fewer than 30 days, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting other than by announcement at the first meeting that is adjourned, but if a general meeting is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as for the original meeting.

Meeting valid despite failure to give notice

48 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, a member or person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate any proceedings at that meeting.

Quorum

49 The quorum for the transaction of business at a general meeting is 10% of the total number of members entitled to vote at the meeting, or 15 members entitled to vote at the meeting, whichever is less.

Requirement of quorum

50 No business, other than the election of a chair under rule 51 and the adjournment of the meeting, may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting and if, at any time during the meeting, a quorum ceases to be present, any business then in progress is suspended until a quorum is present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated, as the case may be.

Lack of quorum

51 (1) If, within one hour after the time appointed for a general meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting,
(a) if convened by requisition of members, must be dissolved, and
(b) in any other case, stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, unless the board changes the place of the meeting out of necessity.
(2) If at the adjourned meeting referred to in subrule (1) a quorum is not present within ½ hour after the time appointed, the individuals present and entitled to vote are deemed to constitute a quorum.

Chair

52 The chair of a general meeting must be one of the president, the vice-president, or, if neither the president nor the vice-president is present or willing to serve, some other member elected by the members present at that general meeting.

Adjournments by chair

53 The chair of a general meeting may, and, if so directed by the individuals present and entitled to vote, must, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Minutes of meetings

54 The secretary must record the minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at a general meeting in books provided by the directors for that purpose.

Persons entitled to be present

55 The only individuals entitled to be present at a general meeting are those entitled to vote at that meeting, the auditor of the Association, if any, and others who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or these rules to be present.

Other persons may be admitted

56 An individual who is not entitled to be present at a general meeting under rule 54 may be admitted to a meeting on the invitation of the chair or with the consent of the individuals at the meeting who are entitled to vote.

Meetings by conference telephone

57 Members are not entitled to participate in general meetings and vote by telephone or other communications medium.

Part 11 - Voting at General Meetings

Actions to be determined by ordinary resolution

58 At a general meeting, every motion must be determined by ordinary resolution unless the Act or these rules require a special resolution.

Chair not entitled to casting vote

59 In case of an equality of votes,
(a) the chair of a general meeting is not entitled to a second or casting vote, and
(b) the motion is lost.

Decisions by show of hands or secret ballot

60 Every motion put to a vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless:
(a) the Association is required to conduct the vote by secret ballot because the Association is holding 2 or more general meetings as permitted in rule 41; or
(b) before or promptly on the declaration of the result of the vote by a show of hands, a secret ballot is directed by the chair or demanded by at least one individual who is present and entitled to vote.

Secret ballots

61 (1) Subject to rule 62, a secret ballot must be taken in the manner and at the time, either at the general meeting or within 7 days after the date of the meeting, and at the place that the chair of the meeting directs.
(2) The result of the secret ballot is deemed to be a resolution of the general meeting at which the secret ballot is demanded.
(3) The individual who demanded a secret ballot may withdraw the demand before the secret ballot is taken.

Chair must resolve dispute on a secret ballot

62 The chair must determine any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote given on a secret ballot, and the chair's determination, made in good faith, is final and conclusive.

Demand for a secret ballot on adjournment

63 A secret ballot demanded on a motion for adjournment must be taken immediately at the meeting.

Demand for a secret ballot not to prevent continuation of meeting

64 A demand for a secret ballot does not prevent the continuation of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the motion on which the secret ballot has been demanded unless the chair orders otherwise.

Declaration of result

65 (1) The chair must declare to the general meeting the decision on every motion in accordance with the result of the show of hands, and that decision must be entered in the minutes of the meeting.

(2) Where a secret ballot has been demanded, the chair must declare to the general meeting the decision on the motion if the decision is available before adjournment and, if not, then the chair must ensure that it is entered in the minutes of the meeting.

Declaration is proof

66 Unless a secret ballot is required or demanded, a declaration by the chair that a motion has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the general meeting is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that motion.

Retention of ballots

67 Each ballot cast on a secret ballot

(a) must be kept at the registered office of the Association for at least 3 months after the general meeting at which it was conducted,

(b) during the period referred to in paragraph (a), must be open to inspection at the registered office of the Association during the Association's normal business hours by any member entitled to vote at the meeting from which the ballot came, and

(c) may be destroyed at the end of the period referred to in paragraph (a).

Part 12 - Voting Rights of Members

Voting rights and restrictions

68 Subject to these rules, a member has only one vote.

Votes of persons in representative capacity

69 A person who is not registered as the holder of a membership share but who is entitled to vote at a general meeting as a representative of a member eligible organization may vote in the same manner as if he or she were a member if, before the meeting at which he or she proposes to vote, he or she satisfies the directors of his or her right to vote at that meeting.

Executors or administrators as joint shareholders

70 If there are 2 or more executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose sole name membership shares stand, those executors or administrators are, for the purposes of voting at general meetings deemed to be joint shareholders of the membership shares.

Representative of eligible organization

71 (1) If an eligible organization provides evidence pursuant to rule 72 that it has appointed an individual to represent it at a general meeting,

(a) the representative is entitled to exercise in respect of and at that meeting the same rights on behalf of the eligible organization as that eligible organization could exercise if it were an individual member of the Association present at the meeting, and
